Please read the following.

Connections is an opportunity for a student to engage in personalized learning as a student in the Oxford City Schools District. The student is still subject to all requirements outlined in their School Handbook and the Oxford City Schools District Code of Conduct During enrollment in Connections. Initial and continued enrollment in Connections is contingent upon a student maintaining satisfactory progress in virtual coursework as determined by faculty and staff. Parents, students, and teachers will work together to ensure adequate progress toward course completion and communicate progress with the eLearning counselor.

By signing below you understand the expectation for enrollment and agree to take responsibility for your student while enrolled in Connections at Oxford.
